

THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN.

ISSUED EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR

BY THE REPUBLICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Entered at the postoffice at Phoenix, Arizona, as mail matter of the second class.

THE REPUBLICAN has its own special wire connecting its office direct with San Francisco and Chicago, and through these cities with all the great news centers of the world. Besides the Associated Press report it receives more special dispatches every day than any paper west of St. Louis, outside of San Francisco.

ENTERTAINMENTS like the business men's carnival deserve the hearty support of every resident of the city.

A NUMBER of strangers are daily visiting Phoenix and scarcely one comes but is greatly pleased with the city and surrounding country.

MANY seats for the business men's carnival at the opera house tonight have already been sold. The house promises to be crowded to its utmost capacity.

Why should there not be a branch of the Society of Arizona Pioneers established in this city. There are here a large number of old-timers who would find their greatest delight in an organization of this character.

As the frank admission was made in court yesterday that a thorough examination of the county offices had probably never been made, it certainly seems an opportune time for the grand jury to see that a thorough examination is made.

SAYS the Mohave County Miner: "It has often been asserted by Captain Hardy, that there were at least ten acts passed by the last Legislature, which did not appear in the published acts. Mr. Hardy has as often been laughed at for his assertions. It now appears that there were eleven bills, which were pigeon holed by Ex-Governor Sullick and good attorneys claim that the acts are just as legal as those published. Among them is the much-discussed Sunday Rest Bill."

WICHITA (Kan.) Eagle: It took five bushels of corn to get into a circus in Kansas in the autumn of 1890. This autumn you can get into the main tent, stay to the concert, go to the side show and get a picture of the Circusian beauty, all for one bushel.

One cannot but view such a statement by a Kansas paper with wonder at its apparent levity, when one remembers the pitiful stories related by Democratic orators last summer, of the poor mortgaged farmers of Kansas, sitting desolately by fires built from the cereal which they had vainly hoped to dispose of for the necessities of life. It's awful.

THERE seems to be as much fun in running a newspaper in Ireland as can be found in Arizona. The announcement in the dispatches a few days ago that Farnell regained control of the United Ireland office by the aid of a "crowd of supporters and a crowsbar" illustrates the fact that all the amusement in journalism is not confined to the wild and woolly West. The Irish method of changing a paper's policy differs somewhat from that obtaining in this country, however. Instead of using the crowsbar the irate American either resorts to the shotgun or else buys up the majority of the stock.

THE meeting held last evening for a conference between the citizens and Professor Rich, of the Indian Bureau, was marked throughout with a deep feeling of appreciation of the benefits this community would derive from the establishment within it of an Indian school. The conditions prescribed by Commissioner Morgan and presented by Professor Rich are not onerous and the instant acceptance of them showed the public spirit of the citizens of Phoenix in an excellent light. The guarantee and subscription lists will be circulated today by Messrs. Goldman and Kemp and every taxpayer should see that his name is appended to both documents.

THAT was not a bad slap that was given by the Western Representatives in Congress the other day, to Spindola and the other New York Congressmen. The latter had expatiated upon the sufferings of the inmates of the prison ships during the Revolution, and had sought to draw upon the sympathies and lachrymose patriotism of their fellow members to the extent of a hundred thousand dollar monument for Brooklyn, to commemorate the deeds of those Revolutionary heroes. But a Western gentleman arose and wanted to know how it was that New York wanted another monument when there was not a trace as yet of the grand manseum which that city had promised to erect over the bones of that great chieftain and hero, Grant. And another gentleman caustically inquired why it was, seeing that New York was so determined to honor those who had suffered in military prisons for their fealty to the flag, that the appropriation bills granting pittance to the survivors of the horrors of Andersonville, Libby and other Southern prison pens had been so steadfastly opposed by the Gotham delegates. And still another mildly wanted to know how the New York Democracy could advocate such a measure, the expenditure of such a large sum of money for a useless bit of stone, while continually harping upon the deficiency that is probable in the Treasury before many months. The flowers of oratory were blighted. No reply was forthcoming from the pushers of the measure, and it went over, not to be resurrected at this sitting of Congress.

THE REPUBLICAN yesterday morning reprinted from the Los Angeles Express an interview with Agent Butler, of Wells-Fargo Express Company, concerning winter shipment of fruits and vegetables to the East. In that interview Mr. Butler said the express rates on fruits and vegetables from Los Angeles east were 6 cents a pound to Chicago and 7 1/2 cents to New York. Inquiries at the express office in this city disclose the fact that rates on the same products from here are 7 1/2 cents a pound to Chicago and 9 cents to New York. This is manifestly unfair to the ranchers of this valley. From Phoenix is over 300 miles less haul to Eastern markets than from Los Angeles, and sixteen hours less time is consumed in the trip. It is such discrimination as this that has retarded the growth of the industries which would do more than all else to enrich our people. By all sense of justice, rates from here should be less than from Los Angeles, but if we cannot get that they should at least be made equal and not handicap the people by rates which prohibit their becoming competitors with the residents of Southern California. Surely it is short-sighted policy that will maintain rates which place an effectual embargo upon shipments, when by a little encouragement a great trade could be built up that would bring thousands of dollars additional income every year. True there has been comparatively little in the way of fruits and vegetables to ship out, but what has been the inducement to raise more? Winter strawberries can be produced in abundance here, and so can peas, beans, tomatoes and other garden products. Peas and beans at 10 to 12 cents a pound in Chicago net a handsome return to the California grower, with express rates 6 cents a pound, but the Arizona grower has a return not sufficient to pay him for his labor when compelled to pay 7 1/2 cents per pound for the same carrying service. The REPUBLICAN respectfully calls the attention of the express company to this unjust state of affairs and trusts an early remodeling of the rates will be made.

FORTY-ONE arrests were made yesterday, for alleged violation of the Sunday Rest bill. What can hope to be gained by the advocates of this measure by starting out in this way, is not apparent. If the desire was to make a test case, one or two arrests, or five at the utmost, would have accomplished the object sought, just as well as to start out to settle a great bill of expense upon the county. Maricopa County seems to be cursed just at present, by a pretty considerable band, who, a la Zulick and the Hospital ring, have no other object in being here but to saddle increased taxes upon the people in order to line the pockets of a certain few. In each of the arrests made yesterday the constable's fees amount to $2.30, and the justice fees to $1, making a total of $3.30. In case of trial there will be an additional fee of $1 for each witness subpoenaed, and this with the justice and other fees will in case of jury trial, as will certainly be demanded, make the costs not less than $100 in each case. As it looks at present there is no possibility of enforcing special legislation, and the taxpayers are confronted with the prospect of a bill of expenses of from $4000 to $5000, all to no purpose but to satisfy the personal spleen of those who are already leeches on the county.

Nor alone from the beet can sugar be profitably made in this valley, but from sorghum and the real sugar cane as well. An importation of Hawaiian Island sugar cane was made in 1880, W. B. Hooper forwarding from San Francisco perhaps fifty sacks of the cuttings to be distributed among the farmers. The shoots thrived admirably, and made progress deemed phenomenal by those familiar with the growth of Louisiana cane. The stock has somewhat run out, but there is much of the same variety here yet. Sorghum flourishes in jungle-like luxuriance wherever the ground is kept moist and is found on nearly every farm in the valley, it being highly esteemed as a substitute for hay. Horses and cattle are very fond of it and it furnishes a fodder that is both fattening and strengthening. Recent experiments conducted by the Agricultural Department have demonstrated the success of a new diffusion process for making sugar from sorghum cane, by the aid of alcohol, and it is not unlikely that the agricultural agency in this valley will demonstrate the capabilities of Arizona in this direction. The manufacture of sugar will undoubtedly be added to the valley's industries before many years.
